NOT APPLICABLE

1/ (Information on any additional waivers which have been granted is contained in attached sheets.)
c. The methods for coordinating responsibilities among the several agencies involved in administration of the plan under the alternate organizational arrangement are as follows:

NOT APPLICABLE
The Commonwealth of Puerto Rico Department of Health (PRDoH) was established by Article 4 of the Constitution of Puerto Rico. The PRDoH is headed by the Secretary of Health, who is appointed by the Governor and which is also defined by the Constitution as a cabinet position.

As certified by Puerto Rico Attorney General, the PRDoH is designated as the single state agency and as such it has the legal authority to administer Title XIX (Medicaid State Plan) and the Title XXI (CHIP State Plan) of the Social Security Act. The Puerto Rico Department of Health (PRDoH), as a Single State Agency, also has the legal authority: (i) to supervise the plan, (ii) to develop, issue, and establish policies, rules, and regulations on program matters. This authority, as the Single State Agency, must not be impaired if any of its rules, regulations, or decisions are subject to review, clearance, or similar action by other officers or agencies of the State. If other State or local agencies or offices perform services for the Medicaid Program, they do not have the authority to change or disapprove any administrative decision of that Program, or otherwise substitute their judgment for that of the Medicaid Program with respect to the application of policies, rules and regulations issued by the Puerto Rico Single State Agency.

Within PRDoH, the day-to-day operation of Medicaid and CHIP is delegated to the Office of the Medicaid Program (Program). The Medicaid Program, a fully integrated office of the PRDoH, is managed by an Executive Director, who is appointed by the Secretary of PRDoH. The Director reports to the Secretary and, along with other appropriate personnel, participate in the development, analysis, and evaluation of the Program.

The Program is responsible, among others, for: (1) the determination of eligibility for categorically and medically needy applicants and beneficiaries according to the requirements as stated on the Title XIX and XXI of the Social Security Act (SSA), Code of Federal Regulations, and Puerto Rico Medicaid and CHIP Plans, and (2) the management of the Medicaid and CHIP grant funds.

The Puerto Rico Medicaid Program also has the following functions and responsibilities:

1. Puerto Rico Medicaid Program is responsible for conducting all Medicaid fair hearings, except for those fair hearings related with (i) beneficiaries’ health care services and benefits; (ii) providers; and (iii) MCOs, MAOs, and PBMs, which are conducted by PRHIA.

2. Puerto Rico Medicaid Program manages Medicaid (Title XIX) and CHIP (Title XXI) funds, as well as the funds to provide drugs to Medicare beneficiaries.

3. The Puerto Rico Medicaid Office will among others, but not limited to, the following functions: (a) Organizes and maintains a program for the evaluation and certification of applicants for Medicaid and CHIP; (b) Keeps update the state plan and handle all state plan amendments; (c) Ensure compliance with federal and local regulations; and, (d) Carry out all those functions necessary and appropriate for the implementation of the public policy of the PRDoH in its area of operation.

The Puerto Rico Medicaid Program also has the following organization to manage all administrative and operational activities through the following divisions:

1. Fiscal Affairs Division: It is in charge of all transaction related to federal and local funds, budget, accounts payable, among others related functions. It is also responsible for making financial reports in compliance with federal regulation. Also, it determines the FQHC prospective payment (wraparound), prepares the documents required, and takes the steps to make the payment.

2. Operations Division: It is in charge of all activities related to eligibility determinations, staff trainings, and information management, among others related functions. This Division conducts all eligibility determinations and has responsibility for conducting fair hearings with respect to denials of eligibility.

3. Administrative Division: It is in charge of all human resources transaction and payroll, office materials acquisition, documents and files warehousing and disposal, transportation services, and documentation and contract management, among others related functions.

4. Fraud and Abuse Unit: the Anti-Fraud Office, which is in charge to investigate beneficiary fraud, among others related functions.

5. Integrity Program: Detects, investigates, and prosecutes cases of fraud by healthcare providers.

6. Quality Control Division: It carries out actions aimed at detecting the presence of errors in the eligibility determination processes.

7. Regional Offices: Supervise and coordinate the operational and administrative phase of the Program in the local offices and satellite offices.
- Local Offices - Make the determination of Eligibility.
- Satellite Offices - Handles cases that come to the emergency room of some hospitals when a person has expired their eligibility, and does not have a medical plan or having it does not meet their needs.

The Puerto Rico Health Insurance Administration (PRHIA) was created by Commonwealth Law Number 72 effective September 7, 1993. PRHIA is a public corporation with full autonomy. It is responsible for implementing, administering and negotiating a health insurance system, through contracts with insurance underwriters that will eventually give all Island residents access to quality medical and hospital care, regardless of their financial condition and capacity to pay.

PRHIA has an agreement with the single State Medicaid Agency to carry out the provisions of Law Number 72. The Single State Medicaid Agency is the Department of Health. Within the Department, the Office of Economic Aid to the Medically Indigent has responsibility for the Medicaid Program.

PRHIA enters into risk contracts with entities/insurers organized under Commonwealth Law 152 (approved on May 9, 1942) to provide or arrange for comprehensive health care services. These consist of Basic Coverage and Special Coverage as detailed in the contract.

PRHIA contracts health insurance for one or more areas or regions, with one or more entities/insurers licensed to do health insurance business in Puerto Rico. Services are rendered following the regionalization system of the Department of Health, progressively establishing a network of participating purveyors throughout the Island. Within each region Primary Care Centers will be established. These must be staffed with consideration to the morbidity and mortality rates of the specific health area and must be sufficiently staffed to provide all the benefits included in the Plan. The entity/insurer must demonstrate to PRHIA the adequacy of its provider network in relation to the region or health area it will serve. Services will be as accessible to Medicaid enrollees as they are to non-enrolled Medicaid beneficiaries.

The entity/insurer must demonstrate financial soundness according to Commonwealth statute, etc., and must submit financial and other reports to the Administration as specified in the contract. If the entity or insurer is declared insolvent, files for bankruptcy, or is placed under liquidation, the Administration has the option to cancel and immediately terminate the contract. In the event that the entity or insurer is declared insolvent, files for bankruptcy, or is placed under liquidation, Medicaid enrollees will not be liable for its debts. The entity/insurer must guarantee to the Administration that the premium constitutes payment in full for the benefits under the program and that participating providers and/or their subcontractors cannot collect any additional amount from the beneficiaries.

The State applies more restrictive eligibility requirements for its blind or disabled than those of the SSI program.

In determining eligibility as categorically needy, the State disregards the amount of the title II benefits identified in § 1634(d)(1)(A) in determining the income of the individual, but does not disregard any more of this income than would reduce the individual’s income to the SSI income standard.

In determining eligibility as categorically needy, the State disregards only part of the amount of the benefits identified in § 1634(d)(1)(A) in determining the income of the individual which amount would not reduce the individual’s income below the SSI income standard. 3. Medicaid Qualifying Trusts.

In the case of a Medicaid qualifying trust described in section 1902(k)(2) of the Act, the amount from the trust that is deemed available to the individual who established the trust (or whose spouse established the trust) is the maximum amount that the trustee(s) is permitted under the trust to distribute to the individual. * The rounding-off dollar rules are applied to the dollar amounts shown in this column. To round, Puerto Rico drops amounts under 50 cents and increases from 50 to 99 cents to the next dollar. For example, $1.39 becomes $1 and $2.50 becomes $3.

 Puerto Rico disregards each individual’s countable earned and unearned monthly income, the amount for the appropriate household size, as described in this Table.

The state will apply Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI)-based methodologies as described below, and consistent with 42 CFR 435.603.

In the case of determining ongoing eligibility for beneficiaries determined eligible for Medicaid on or before December 31, 2013, MAGI-based income methodologies will not be applied until March 31, 2014, or the next regularly-scheduled renewal of eligibility, whichever is later, if application of such methods results in a determination of ineligibility prior to such date.

In determining family size for the eligibility determination of a pregnant woman, she is counted as herself plus each of the children she is expected to deliver.

In determining family size for the eligibility determination of the other individuals in a household that includes a pregnant woman:

- The pregnant woman is counted just as herself.
- The pregnant woman is counted as herself, plus one.
- The pregnant woman is counted as herself, plus the number of children she is expected to deliver.

Financial eligibility is determined consistent with the following provisions:

When determining eligibility for new applicants, financial eligibility is based on current monthly income and family size.

When determining eligibility for current beneficiaries, financial eligibility is based on:

- Current monthly household income and family size
- Projected annual household income and family size for the remaining months of the current calendar year

In determining current monthly or projected annual household income, the state will use reasonable methods to:

- Include a prorated portion of a reasonably predictable increase in future income and/or family size.
- Account for a reasonably predictable decrease in future income and/or family size.

Except as provided at 42 CFR 435.603(d)(2) through (d)(4), household income is the sum of the MAGI-based income of every individual included in the individual's household.

In determining eligibility for Medicaid, an amount equivalent to 5 percentage points of the FPL for the applicable family size will be deducted from household income in accordance with 42 CFR 435.603(d).

Household income includes actually available cash support, exceeding nominal amounts, provided by the person claiming an individual described at §435.603(f)(2)(i) as a tax dependent.

- Yes
- No
The age used for children with respect to 42 CFR 435.603(f)(3)(iv) is:

☐ Age 19
☐ Age 19, or in the case of full-time students, age 21

ATTACHMENT 2 TO MAGI FORM S10

MAGI-BASED INCOME METHODOLOGIES

Transmittal Number: PR-17-0001
State: Puerto Rico

Household Composition
- In determining Household Composition, the following provisions are not applicable: 42 CFR §435.503(f)(1), (f)(2), (f)(4), and (f)(5).
- Household Composition for all individuals is defined in accordance with 42 CFR §435.603(f)(3). It means that the Household Composition is established using the "Rules for individuals who neither file a tax return nor are claimed as a tax dependent."

Household Income
- In determining Household Income, the following provisions are not applicable: 42 CFR §435.603(d)(2), (d)(3), and (d)(4).
- Household Income for all individuals is defined in accordance with 42 CFR §435.603(d)(1) and (e). It means that the Household Income is established using the "Household income—(1) General rule" and "MAGI-based income."

Household Income Disregard
- Puerto Rico has elected in the S14T Income Standards - Territories state plan page to use the Local Poverty Level (LPL), which is the Puerto Rico Poverty Level (PRPL), instead of the Federal Poverty Level (FPL). As noted on the S14T, "Wherever FPL is referenced in the other sections of the State Plan; it means the Local Poverty Level."
- In determining the Medicaid eligibility of an individual using MAGI-Based Income, the Medicaid Program deducts from household income an amount equivalent to 5 percentage points of the PRPL for the applicable family size, consistent with 42 CFR §435.603(d)(4). The deduction is only to determine the eligibility of an individual for medical assistance under the MAGI-Based Eligibility Group with the highest income standard in the applicable Title of the Social Security Act, but not to determine eligibility for a particular eligibility group.

Household Income - Current Monthly Income
- The "Current monthly income" generally means the month of application.

Household Income - Cash Support
- The election on S10 page 1, to consider actually available cash support exceeding nominal amounts for individuals described in 42 CFR §435.603(f)(2)(i), is not applicable.
- Income received from absent parents, relatives, or non-relatives from inside or outside of Puerto Rico is not counted towards an individual's T-MAGI income calculation. Since household composition under T-MAGI is based on the non-filer rules, the only income that may be counted is the income from other family members in the household constructed using the non-filer rules. This includes the individual, spouse if living with the individual, children under age 19, in accordance with 42 CFR §435.603(f)(3).

Household Income - Child's Income

- Living with One or Both Parent
  A child’s income will not count toward the household MAGI if:
  i. The child is in the household with one or both parent and
  ii. The child’s income does not meet the IRS tax filing thresholds (i.e., when counting earned and/or unearned income) adjusted for the Puerto Rico standard of living.

  See Supplement 1 to Attachment 2 - “Child Income Threshold Test” - to determine if the child's income will count.

- Living with Other Caretaker Relative or Unrelated Adult
  If a child is not living with one or both parent, child’s income counts as a regular member for any household in which the child is a member, including the household in which the child is the member being evaluated.

  [As an example, a child who is living with a grandmother (caretaker relative) and siblings.]
SUPPLEMENT 1 TO ATTACHMENT 2
MAGI FORM S10: MAGI-BASED INCOME METHODOLOGIES

"CHILD INCOME THRESHOLD TEST"

When a child lives with at least one parent, determine whether the Child’s MAGI Income counts for households in which it is included by performing the following steps.

If, after step 6 the Child Income is marked as “Countable” then his/her income is to be included in the household income.

Use test values from Child Income Tax Threshold table for the appropriate year. For any calendar year use the prior Tax Year, e.g. – when evaluating a case in 2017, use lookup values from Tax Year 2016 in table.

As an example:

- For any calendar year Puerto Rico will use the prior Tax Year, e.g. – when evaluating a case in 2017, use lookup values from Tax Year 2016 in table of the IRS Publication 501. (For 2017, see https://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/p501.pdf).
- For calendar year 2017, Puerto Rico will use the values as published for the IRS Publication 501 for Tax Year 2016.
- For a household of 1 member the monthly PRPL is $459 as established in the MAGI Form S14T that it is part of the SPA PR-13-0006, which was approved by CMS on December 24, 2014. The annual PRPL is $5,508 since July, 1st 2017.
- For a household of 1 member, the monthly FPL for 2017 is $1,005 as published in the Federal Register on Tuesday, January 31, 2017, (82 Federal Register pages 8831-8832). The annual Federal Poverty Guidelines for the 48 Contiguous States and the District of Columbia is $12,060 for 2017, (12,060 / 12 = 1,005).
- The annual PRPL to FPL conversion ratio for 2017 and for each year so on is calculated as follows:
  - Calendar Year 2017:
    PRPL = $5,508
    FPL = $12,060
    Ratio = 5,508 / 12,060 = 46% (applies to Tax Year 2016)
- The monthly PRPL represents a 46% of the FPL (459 / 1,005 = 0.456).
- The IRS Publication 501 for Tax Year 2016, Table 2 - 2016 Filing Requirements for Dependents on page 4, provides values for the formula as follows:
  - UIL (Unearned Income Limit) = $1,050
  - EIL (Earned Income Limit) = $6,300
  - GI (Gross earned income Increment) = $350
  - GL (Gross earned income Limit) = $5,950.
- Applying the 46% to convert to the Puerto Rico levels results in:
  - UIL (Unearned Income Limit) = $483
  - EIL (Earned Income Limit) = $2,898
  - GI (Gross earned income Increment) = $161
  - GL (Gross earned income Limit) = $2,737.

During any calendar year, the prior Tax Year's threshold values will be used as the most recently available.

The process for determining whether to count a child’s income as described on the preceding page is based on IRS rules as found in Publication 501.

The values to be used in the IRS formula will be adjusted for the Puerto Rico standard of living based on the ratio of the Puerto Rico Poverty Level (PRPL) to the Federal Poverty Level (FPL).

This ratio will be calculated each calendar year based on the values for PRPL and FPL for that year and applied to the preceding tax year.

At the start of any calendar year, if the up-to-date values are not yet known, the most recent table available will be used.

Voluntary Benefit Package Selection Assurances - Eligibility Group under Section 1902(a)(10)(A).

The state/territory has fully aligned its benefits in the Alternative Benefit Plan using Essential Health Benefits and subject to 1937 requirements with its Alternative Benefit Plan that is the state’s approved Medicaid state plan that is not subject to 1937 requirements. Therefore the state/territory is deemed to have met the requirements for voluntary choice of benefit package for individuals exempt from mandatory participation in a section 1937 Alternative Benefit Plan.

Explain how the state has fully aligned its benefits in the Alternative Benefit Plan using Essential Health Benefits and subject to 1937 requirements with its Alternative Benefit Plan that is the state’s approved Medicaid state plan that is not subject to 1937 requirements.

Puerto Rico submitted to CMS the Benchmark Plan and identified Triple S Optimo. Puerto Rico then formed a workgroup comprised of individuals from ASES and Medicaid to guide the development of the Alternative Benefit Plan. The workgroup provided oversight for the completion of a crosswalk of benefits to the benchmark plan and the current Puerto Rico State Plan and identified service revisions and potential substitution of services. The plans were aligned in most areas however the following benefits were identified for new service or substitution. Throughout the development process, Puerto Rico participated in weekly technical assistance calls led by Central and Regional CMS staff. Throughout these calls sections of the draft ABP were submitted informally and discussed. Each substitution of service and proposed SPA was reviewed by ASES Actuary to ensure alignment of the substitutions of service. Fiscal Impact/PMPM cost estimates were prepared by the actuary for new services. The benefits in the Alternative Benefit Plan are the same as those offered in the Puerto Rico State Plan. In addition the services included meet the requirements of all Essential Health Benefits.
